Now is the Time To Sign Up for the Kiwanis International Convention

If you have been putting off registering for the Kiwanis International Convention in Las Vegas, don't procrastinate any longer. The early bird registration rate lasts only a few more days—till the end of this month. It will cost $55.00 more to register Kiwanians and $30.00 more for non-Kiwanians after January 31.

It takes just a few minutes to register on line at <http://www.kiwanisone.org/convention> or you can copy forms from the December Kiwanis magazine if you want to do it by snail mail. And if you still prefer to register the old fashioned way and can't find the magazine, get forms from your club secretary or you can download them from the convention web site.

Don't know what to do about delegate registration? Don't worry. After you register for the convention you will be sent delegate registration forms in you convention packet, and your club secretary also has the forms.

You can also register at a hotel in Las Vegas on line. You do that after you register for the convention. The official Missouri-Arkansas District hotel is the Flamingo. Registering now will ensure that you get in that hotel. It is $95.00 per night, plus taxes.

Information on the location, time, and cost of the Mo-Ark District dinner (or other district gathering) will be announced later.

The dates are June 24-27. The place is the Las Vegas Convention Center.

Register. Do it now!
